Reimagine and craft the employee experience:
Design thinking in action

Deloitte's Global Human Capital Trends 2016<sup>3</sup> research reveals that, typically, the more importance an organization places on design thinking and the more ready it is to embrace it, the faster the organization grows. According to the data, companies growing by 10 percent or more per year are more than twice as likely to report they are ready to incorporate design thinking compared to their counterparts that are experiencing stagnant growth.

Jan 3 - Onboarding by Core Objectives

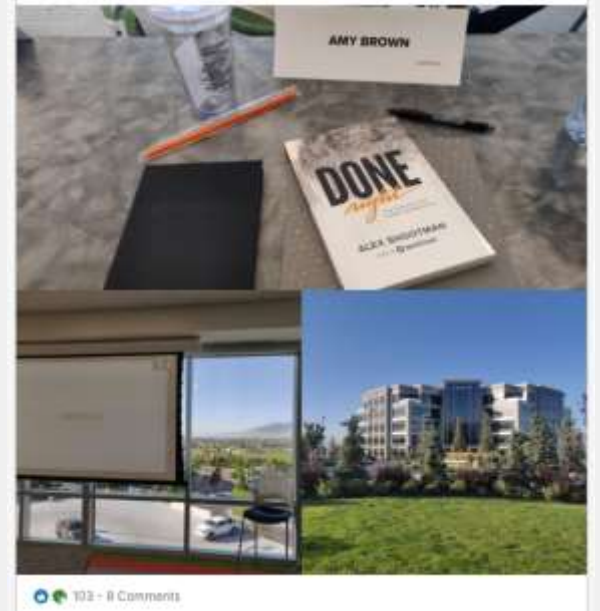

When I got home I had a box on my doorstep from Workfront. I opened it up and WOW. Thank you for for welcoming me into this new chapter in style!! I'm so excited to join the WorkFront family!! #thankyou #onboarding
